

November 27, 2022/ Reflective Questions- Matthew 1:1-17

1. What phrase from the scripture reading/and or poems was your favorite?

What phrase from the readings did you dislike or find confusing?

Did anything from the illustration Genealogy of Christ capture your attention?

2. Growing up what were you told about Jesus' earthly family and/or lineage?
3. If you were told something about each of these characters in his genealogy, how might that change your perception of Jesus and shape your theology?
4. Who were the people in your own family whose stories never made it to the table?

Why weren't they told?

Where did you hear their story?

After hearing them did they add to your own liberation?

Did they add to justice and contribute to love or thwart them?

5. In your line of work how does being able to tell all of your story fit in?
6. Have you learned to tell your story in a way that is liberating? If so how?
7. Does your name tie you to the generations that came before you?
